WORLD YOUTH ALLIANCE

Middle East

A guide to our internship program

World Youth Alliance
Middle East

GENERAL OVERVIEW

The World Youth Alliance (WYA) is a global coalition of young people committed to promoting the dignity of the person and building solidarity among youth from developed and developing nations. Since its founding, WYA has been training young people to work at the regional and international levels to impact policy and culture. Today the organization represents more than one million young people across the globe and has regional offices in New York, Brussels, Mexico, Manila, Nairobi, and Beirut.

WYAME Internship Program

The World Youth Alliance, Middle East gives the opportunity to all youth leaders from around the globe to participate in the regional internship program, especially for candidates from the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region.

This program will shape and build their potentials in promoting human rights and human dignity, creating an impact on society. Through our three months program, you will be able to endorse your project management skills, creative writing, research, social media and fundraising by getting the most out of this experience. Moreover, it will help you feel comfortable about working with a diverse team and individually.

If you are interested in fulfilling and promoting WYA's mission in your country and region, we strongly encourage you to apply and join our office in Beirut.

We offer you a chance to:

- Discover WYA's mission and values by receiving the Certified Training Program and becoming a certified member.
- Understand the organization and its strategy by getting to know more about our international programs.
- Participate in developing our regional strategies and drafting our advocacy positions.

- Collaborate in organizing our regional events: Emerging Leaders' Conference, NGO Fairs, UNDEF community awareness activities, and many others.
- Attend different events and meet new contacts as you represent WYA in various occasions.

Your main tasks and responsibilities are as follow:

- Handling and developing social media strategies and campaigns along with administrative tasks.
- Organizing a fundraising event along with the team.
- Writing two blog posts to be published on WYA's international blog.
- Conducting interviews and gathering information to develop a research paper.
- Organizing two cultural events.
- Assisting WYAME team in planning and organizing all educational and cultural events, conferences and activities.

Notes:

- World Youth Alliance Middle East does not provide any visa to the candidates and would help by sending an invitation letter stating that they got accepted to the program, as a proof of participation.
- The ticket and accommodation are fully covered by the candidate.
- WYAME provides daily transportation fees, based on the Lebanese national law.
